Prohibited Matters

This Media ID Card is issued on the condition that the photos and videos taken at the Games will be used solely for news programmes. During coverage of the Games, commercial (sales) purposes or secondary use of photos, etc. are prohibited without permission, including the sale or rental of photos and videos taken at the Games, the commercialization of photos and videos such as photobooks, and the display of photos and videos at exhibitions, etc.*

Additionally, if the use of photos and videos for commercial activities or other purposes other than news programmes is anticipated, the Japanese Federation of the Deaf must be consulted with in advance.

*This does not apply if broadcasting rights have been granted; however, a separate application is required for broadcasting rights.

Furthermore, possession of a Media ID Card does not authorise the taking of photos and videos for the purpose of scouting the opposing team or analysing the game strategy.
